Truro Challenge Day at Truro School

On the 6th of June, Maisie, Lowen, Tilly and Aidan from Year 5 attended the Truro Challenge Day at Truro School. The certificate is placed proudly in the school entrance. Well done, team! The staff contacted Mr Parekh about their enthusiasm and impeccable behaviour!

During the day, our task was to set up a cupcake business. In all, there were 5 stages - planning, profit, designing, advertising and making, (6, if you include eating the cakes at the end!) The shop was Cupcake Corner with a slogan, 'Come on in!' We were selling 2 cupcakes: Billy the Bear and Great Britain's Best. We all had an amazing time - winning the best design and the best finished product. When all the scores were added up, we were awarded 2nd place! A SWEET result! By Maisie, Lowen, Tilly and Aidan.

TRLC Awards at Truro Cathedral

A truly special evening was spent at The Annual TRLC awards in Truro Cathedral last night. Our award winners were - Paige, Harry, Millie, Dylan, Emily, Ella and Hannah, all from year 6, each of them were presented with very special awards for a variety of achievements, such as Outstanding Commitment to Others, Academic progress, Creativity and Sporting Achievements. Four of our year 6 children also sang beautifully in the choir at the start of the ceremony. Miss Carden and Miss Norton were incredibly proud once again of all pupils.

Continuing our school games route.....

Thank you to all of the families that joined us at our school games day this week. We are really proud of how all of our children took part throughout the day. There was a plethora of sporting activities taking part over the morning with the more traditional races in the afternoon. The children, (and adults) showed fantastic team spirit and a brilliant 'can do' attitude. We look forward to welcoming you all back next year!

Mr Maloney & Mr Flack.

Congratulations go to the Tag Rugby team who won the Roseland Festival on Wednesday. They played 5 matches and won them all! Amazing!! Well done to Archie B, Gracie B, Hettie B, Oscar B, Freddie M, Daniel A, Jacob W and Tom C. A big thank you to a very proud Mr Brown for his vast rugby knowledge.
